Preface

Phra Vides Prommakun

Wat Promkunaram, Phoenix, Arizona State, USA.

President of Bodhisastra University Florida, USA.

I know that there will be another academic conference of the Bodhisastra family. I am very glad. Welcome all our members. Bodhisastra is the science of modern knowledge and the center of your abilities in management. It also uses religion as a strategy to solve current problems. It is the management style of the administrators. I would like to thank you very much for thinking together and developing together until it becomes concrete. It helps everyone have the opportunity as desired. With Jintamaya (Success through thinking: Achievement through thought), Patthanamaya (Success through action: Achievement through doing), Itthimaya. (Success through power: Achievement through authority or influence.

May success and progress occur forever.

Welcome Message

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Om Huvanandana
The Chairman of Organizes Committee

Distinguished Participants. It is my pleasure to welcome you to the first international BOU conference.

The conference has been planned in the mind of BOU founder Professor Dr. Sak Prasandee since its beginning in 2017. It is his commitment to lead an Alternative Education Learning to a recognized academic excellence.

Today we are together to witness and participate in BOU start up in research presentation and discussion from successful professional in various fields, who will share their success in a BOU document format to be published in the next BOU journal.

Finally I wish to express my appreciation to your support and participation in joining BOU to build the road to wisdom.

Welcome Message

Assoc.Prof. Dr. Chantarot Pakamash

This academic conference marks a significant and meaningful day, not only for BOU members but also for the inception of independent education (or alternative education, for those who prefer a gentler term). We are embarking on the establishment of a quality assurance system and fostering connections among education management groups worldwide.

While we refer to this 2024 conference as our first, it's worth noting that we've held similar events in 2022 and 2023, primarily for our alumni in Thailand. This year, however, marks our truly international debut, as we've invited scholars from our global network to present their knowledge collectively.

I extend my gratitude to Associate Professor Om Huvanandana for chairman this event, and to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Pradit Withisuphakorn for leading the working group, initiating this endeavor, and envisioning the future of our independent education system.

Special thanks go to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Janthamas Wongsaree for her dedication and hard work, and to Ms. Phanwadee Prasandee for her excellent work as the working group's secretary, efficiently handling various responsibilities.

I'm grateful to the Bodhisavika Institute for Women and Female Monks, led by Assoc. Prof. Dr. Surachai Pichaichuang, for their systematic presentation, which greatly eased the management team's work.

My appreciation also extends to our partner groups, organizations, and networks from Nigeria, Indonesia, Vietnam, and Cambodia, who form our core international collaborators, as well as to groups from other countries joining us for this event.

I hope this conference will strengthen our friendships and that the presented articles will provide novel, inspiring lessons applicable across the globe.

Guidelines for Applying as an Affiliated Institution with Bodhisastra University, Florida, USA

Important Information

1. Bodhisastra University is registered as an independent or alternative educational institution in the religion category in Florida, USA. It does not seek accreditation from the US Education Association or recognition from the Thai government.
2. The university offers bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degree programs.
3. The university conducts education through a Digital Platform, offering online and distance learning systems, and self-study education management.
4. The university does not open physical classrooms in any country but uses online and distance learning systems. Students can access learning from any place, anywhere, and at any time, under the supervision of advisors in each country who will organize the country's learning institution.
5. Any organization or individual in any country wishing to cooperate with BOU can arrange affiliated institution learning, meaning they organize the learning and students receive degrees from BOU.
6. Education is managed through a Research Program system. Students must write a thesis according to the university's format to request a defense examination. Students can take the defense exam after at least one semester, once they have completed their thesis and received approval from their advisor.
7. The university's concept is that students already have knowledge and success; knowledge resides with the students, not the professors. Therefore, students must compile their experiences, achievements, and successes into a thesis, which can be called self-knowledge extraction research.
8. The university is established as a non-profit organization, using a Digital Platform system and volunteers to help with administration and teaching. It aims to provide access to education for grassroots populations. The university does not invest in buildings, hire many teaching staff or operational personnel, thus reducing costs and allowing for minimal tuition fees through donations.

Cooperation Guidelines

For those interested in collaborating as an educational service center of the university in the form of affiliated institutions worldwide, the guidelines are as follows:

1. Thoroughly understand the concepts, philosophy, and operations of the university.
2. Request permission to become an affiliated institution of the university.
3. Open admissions for bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. Program fees: Bachelor's degree - $1,000 USD, Master's degree - $1,500 USD, Doctoral degree - $4,500 USD.

4. The university will provide appropriate financial support to affiliated institutions. However, affiliated institutions may charge higher educational service fees than BOU's set rates, based on reasons and services beyond BOU's basic services.
5. Orientation for newly enrolled students to understand the university's concepts, philosophy, and educational management.
6. Education can be completed in no less than one semester, with the approval of the advisor, depending on the student's ability to write their thesis.
7. Students must have an advisor to guide them in writing their thesis.
8. Affiliated institutions can provide supplementary teaching to students to help them better understand how to write their thesis.
9. Affiliated institutions can organize degree conferment ceremonies for their students or join with other affiliated institutions as appropriate.
